

Towns and Cities Where the Public Cannot Bring Cellphones Into Massachusetts District Courts

Red = the public cannot bring cellphones into the Massachusetts district court that serves this town or city

Green = the public can bring cellphones into the Massachusetts district court that serves this town or city

This map was prepared by the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute on May 21, 2018. Data about which Massachusetts District Courts prohibit the public from bringing cell phones and other personal electronic devices into the court house was obtained from <https://www.mass.gov/policy-statement/trial-court-restrictions-on-the-possession-of-cellular-telephones-and-personal-5/18/2018>.